

Club to Choose "Hawaii Look" Girl

HAWAIIAN ATTIRE will mark the festivities at Monday's Polynesian dinner party by the Torrance Business and Professional Women's Club. The club will combine the salute to the new State with their Community Press Month.

BPW Dinner Meet to Salute Press, Hawaii

Community Press" month and a salute to Hawaii will be combined when the Torrance Business and Professional Women's Club hold their monthly dinner at the Polynesian Monday evening at 7:30 p.m.

Society editors from the local newspapers will be the guests of the meeting. Each of the representatives, Mary Brandvig, the Daily Breeze; Edna Cloyd, Torrance Herald and Mary Neth, Torrance Press, will speak on the subject of journalism.

All members and guests will be dressed in Hawaiian attire and a prize will be given to the girl with the "Hawaiian look."

The Club is now opening its doors to new prospective members. Any business or professional women interested in joining the group should contact Maxine Hahn, president, P. O. Box 535, Torrance.

She will explain the club's functions and personally extend an invitation to attend a meeting. The group is an international club of business women.

Nuptial Vows Unite Williams and Vader

Miss Pat Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nat Williams of 18709 Crenshaw St., became the bride of Jim Vader, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Vader of Los Angeles at ceremonies at the South Bay Church of God, August 1 at 8 p.m.

Rev. Clifford L. Tierney performed the candlelight rites. The bride dressed in a white ballerina length lace gown and carrying a bouquet of stephanotis was escorted to the altar by her father.

Peggy Schug, wearing a dress of blue lace, served the bride as her maid of honor. The bride's twin sisters acted as candlelighters.

The mothers of the bride and bridegroom wore dark and light blue crepe dresses and white-orchid corsages for the occasion.

Following the ceremonies a reception was held at the church hall.

The new Mrs. Vader is a graduate of North High School and presently employed by the Citizens National Bank in Los Angeles. The bridegroom graduated from high school in Los Angeles and is now employed as a mechanic.

The couple will make their home in Los Angeles.

Local Jobies Now at Crestline

Torrance Job's Daughters Bethel No. 50 left Saturday by bus for a seven day stay in the mountains at Nob Oak Guest Camp.

Plans for the annual trip to Crestline were made by the Mother's Club at its meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. George Crabtree, 1753 Gramercy.

Accompanying the girls are Mrs. Leonard Babcock, Crabtree, Harold Woodman, William Hoy, Mary Lenton, K. H. Kail, Michael Orend, Victor Fowler, Lee Stamps and Paul Crossman.

The coming Sample Fair was also discussed at the meeting. A committee headed by Mrs. John Pollard assisted by Crabtree, C. R. Skaggs, D. H. Meredith, Woodman and Kail will arrange for the event.

The next meeting of the Mother's Club will be held Sept. 9 at the home of Mrs. Harold Woodman, 1333 Engracia, co-hostess will be Mrs. E. E. Sparks.

The group served breakfast to the Chamber of Commerce August 25.

Named to the vice-president's office was George Coates, while Pat Marley was elected to fill the treasurer's chair for the first year. Mel Coates was successful in his bid for the secretary's spot.

Plans for a "Youth Honor Day" dance and party will be discussed at the next meeting of the Torrance Teens on Aug. 23rd.

Admission to the concert will be free of charge.

Ceremonies Mark Installation of Good Government Officers

Impressively simple ceremonies marked the recent installation of new officers for Women for Good Government at a luncheon meeting in the Garden Room of Smith's Fish Shanty.

Nineteen women representing the harbor and peninsula area as well as Long Beach, Torrance and Hawthorne were invested with six major offices, and appointed to the Board of Directors of the organization which promotes the study and practice of sound constitutional government at local, state and national levels.

Mrs. Charles Shute, retiring president, charged Mrs. Clyde Haslet, new president, and her officers with the maintenance, purpose and ideals of the group in her investiture remarks.

Upon acceptance of the gavel Mrs. Haslet pledged herself to vitalize the theme which she has chosen for the year: the restoration of spiritual morality in personal, business and government activities. "I now invite you," said Mrs. Haslet, "to join with us in a common goal—that of restoring moral and spiritual integrity to all areas of life in which we participate."

Following Mrs. Haslet's address Mrs. Le Roy Davis, membership chairman, presented a leather brief case to Mrs. Shute on behalf of the retiring Board. Mrs. Howard G. Patterson, Jr., program chairman, introduced two young officers of the Torchbearers.

William Rehm (17), president, outlined the work of the organization in training teenagers for sound citizenship. Holly Holmes, Jr., historian, amplified his remarks and read a congratulatory letter from Vice President Richard Nixon sent just prior to his state visit to Russia.

Mrs. George Holmes, founder and advisor to the group noted that a second Torchbearer chapter has been granted a charter in Pasadena and that due to the wide interest both of the public and the press additional chapters will be formed shortly.

Distinguished guests included: Councilman Willis Blount; Mrs. Agnes Wright who pronounced the invocation; Dr. David Calderwood of Torrance who gave the benediction; Glen Pfeil, Fraser McMinn, Ruth Stroud, and Dr. and Mrs. Donald Cortum of Torrance.

Dr. Cortum, it was announced, will be the first speaker of the club year when he appears Sept. 23 for Women for Good Government at the San Pedro Woman's Club. He will discuss the problem of pornographic literature.

Luncheon chairmen included: Mrs. T. Thomas Gibson; Mrs. Oscar De Jere; Mrs. Curtis Johnson; Mrs. Leon Ferrier; and Mrs. Andrew J. De Paolo. Officers and Board members for the ensuing year are:

Mrs. Clyde Haslet of Torrance, president; Howard G. Patterson, Jr., vice president and program chairman; Ralph Williams, recording secretary; Gilbert C. Van Camp, Sr., corresponding secretary; Oscar De Jere, co-corresponding secretary; Curtis Johnson, treasurer; W. C. Beck, parliamentarian; Le Roy Davis, membership; Charles Mundorf, literature chairman; De Jere, co-literature chairman; Ray Hill, legislative chairman; Jane Storm, co-legislative chairman; Charles Shute, social relations and hospitality; Wade Beardsley, bulletin, William Power, press chairman; William Strong education; George Holmes, Edward Holmes and E. C. Spires, election procedures.

Teen Club Announced by Order of Moose

The formation of a teen-age club "to promote healthful and enjoyable entertainment for the youth of the Torrance area," was announced this week by George W. Clay, governor of the Torrance lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose.

Membership in the new organization, which will hold its first regular meeting at the lodge hall, 1744 W. Carson St., Aug. 23rd, at 7:30 p.m., is open to boys and girls in the Torrance area between the ages of thirteen and twenty. Formation of the club is under the direction of Roger Evans, lodge chairman for youth activities.

Leona Pierce was elected president of the "Torrance Teens" at last week's planning meeting.

Mannequins Slate Thunderbird Fashion Shows

A busy fall season is planned by the Torrance Mannequins. In addition to their regular weekly Thursday shows at Caprinis and numerous Club shows, they will present fashions every Monday evening at 7:30 p.m. at the Thunderbird Restaurant, 825 North Sepulveda, El Segundo.

Next Monday evening a preview of fall fashions will be shown. Heading the list of styles from famous designers will be ensembles by Don Loper and Alex Colman. Cocktail wear by Miss Elliott and fur trimmed sweaters by Lee Herman will also be shown along with campus styles by Junior House of Milwaukee.

"SOUL" IS SERMON SUBJECT

"Soul," seen to be a synonym for God, and that divine force which identifies and beautifies man in God's likeness, is the Lesson-Sermon subject in all Christian Science churches on Sunday.

The Golden Text for the sermon is in the prophet's words from Psalms, "Exalt the Lord our God, and worship at his holy hill; for the Lord our God is holy" (99:9).

FALL FASHIONS and fashion events mean a busy schedule for Torrance Mannequins. From left, Dorothy Wilkes and Mona Norris, two of the models from the well-known local group pose in ensembles for the coming season. The Mannequins will present fashions every Monday evening at 7:30 at the Thunderbird Restaurant in addition to their Thursday shows at Caprinis.

Teenagers Like Mom's Approval on Fashions

Do teens have the final say on what they wear? According to a recent teenage fashion group panel they do, but like to have a mother or friend along for approval.

Fashion magazines have a great influence on teen buying say the girls. First in popularity they agree is the separate look of sweaters, blouses and skirts, as they can be switched around for a larger wardrobe. Second choice is the Ivy look of cotton shirtwaist dresses.

Formals of ballerina length with strapless top is a liked best. Scooped but not too low necklines make pretty party dresses, according to the girls.

The biggest influence in picking out an outfit is what popular girls are wearing. Teens, the panel agreed don't want to look different even at the risk of choosing a style that might be more personally flattering.
